Tax consulting and compliance

Consulting

As part of BDO International, we are able to deliver up-to-date tax advice in 100 countries.

We work closely with our clients to minimise tax burdens by use of appropriate planning opportunities, whether relevant to Channel Island or international situations.

Typically the areas we are required to advise on are:

- Corporate tax
- Personal tax
- Partnership tax
- International structuring
- Property tax planning
- Use of double taxation treaties
- Revenue investigations and negotiating settlements
- VAT and customs duties

In conjunction with BDO London we also hold dedicated tax compliance workshops for Jersey based trust and company service providers, to advise on all aspects of UK tax legislation, including matters arising from Special Compliance Office investigations.

BDO's international tax planning publications are available on request. They include advice relating to the optimum structuring of cross-border transactions and compliance with local tax regulations.

Compliance

With regard to tax compliance, we are able to offer a bespoke tax service to both corporate and personal clients, which can include preparation of tax submissions, appealing assessments and dealing with queries raised by the relevant tax authorities.

Please note that this is not an exhaustive list of services and we would be happy to discuss specific service requirements at any time.
